

Caroline Brae, author of Little Grey Bird, contemplates relationships, belonging and prejudice to loss, enhanced by her rich talents as a musician, artist, dancer, choreographer and former teacher. Excerpts are found at voxpoetica online, Sock Drawer Poetry Series at

Marian Pearce, writer and storyteller, currently emcees Rapunzel's Poetry & Literature Nights, previously teaching Shakespeare, Women's History, directing children's theatre, and leading teen poetry groups.

Ellie White, author of Requiem for a Doll is published in many journals and is an Academy of American Poets Poetry prize recipient as well as Best of the Net and Pushcart Prize nominee. She is editor for Four Ties Literary Review and Muzzle Magazine.